Disclosure Principles

ASIC has developed nine disclosure principles designed to help investors better understand, compare and assess funds like the Fund and understand whether such an investment is suitable for them. In the table below we set out each of the disclosure principles together with a summary of how each disclosure principle is addressed.

PRINCIPLE	THE DETAIL
DISCLOSURE PRINCIPLE 1: Investment Strategy	The Investment Strategy The Manager is focused on generating superior risk adjusted returns for its investors. It does this by investing in situations whereby it perceives that the reward on offer is outsized relative to the risk involved in establishing a position. Historically, the Manager has found many such opportunities have existed within the 'event' space and as such regularly invests in merger arbitrage situations, along with select capital raisings and other corporate actions. The Fund utilises a variety of instruments to achieve its investment outcomes including Australian and international equities, derivatives and CFDs. Derivative instruments (including CFDs) are used primarily for hedging purposes as opposed to outright speculation. Generating returns Rather than employing a particular style (deep value, growth etc.) Harvest Lane employs a variety of styles to achieve the Fund's stated objective, namely to generate a positive return on capital employed regardless of underlying market and economic conditions. The Fund does not track an index and nor is it required to be fully or partially invested in the event that Harvest Lane is unable to identify sufficiently attractive opportunities. Returns are not guaranteed. Managing and mitigating market risk The Fund manages market risk by aiming to be relatively market-neutral at all times. This is done by choosing, or in some instances manufacturing, positions whose value is affected by something other than movements in the broader market. Put another way, the Fund will have low correlation with the broader market index (as well as typically having low sensitivity to market movements). An example of a position where low correlation is naturally occurring would be when a stock is the subject of an unconditional takeover offer which market participants are expecting will successfully complete in the coming weeks. In such an instance, the stock that is being acquired should trade at (or close to) the price at which the takeover has been agreed irrespective of the performance of the broader market, as the stock's future value is already known and is no longer influenced by external factors. On occasion the Fund can manufacture 'low correlation' by entering into one or more offsetting (or hedge) transactions against existing positions that would otherwise be highly dependent on market movements ('high correlation'). This would generally involve the Fund taking a short position by way of a CFD.

PRINCIPLE

THE DETAIL

DISCLOSURE PRINCIPLE 1:

Investment Strategy

Portfolio leverage

When the Fund acquires a derivative position, the notional exposure of the derivative is generally a multiple of the amount paid for it. Having a number of derivative positions leverages the initial investment made by the investor. At times the Fund may borrow money to increase the amount that can be invested.

For example, if the Fund holds $100 of investor capital, and invests $100 in shares and acquires derivatives with aggregate exposure of $100, it would have the following characteristics:

- investor capital and net assets of $100
- gross exposure of $200 ($100 shares + $100 derivatives)
- net exposure of $0 ($100 shares - $100 derivatives, assuming they are all short positions)
- gross leverage of 2.0x (gross exposure of $200 / investor capital of $100)

The Fund will typically operate with gross leverage of no more than 2.0x the net asset value of the Fund and Harvest Lane will seek to ensure that gross leverage remains below 3.0x the net asset value of the Fund at all times.

Diversification and position limits

Harvest Lane seeks to ensure that:

- no one position (defined as exposure to the same group) risks more than 4% of the Fund's capital when the position is established. This can increase to no more than 10% over the life of the investment (although it will typically be much less than 10%)
- no more than 20% of the portfolio will be invested in any one position
- net exposure of the Fund (long positions less short positions) is generally between 50% and 150% of the net asset value of the Fund and
- the Fund will generally hold 12-15 long positions and 5-10 short positions at all times

Note that at times the Fund may be fully invested in cash.

The above position limits are generally measured at the time of acquisition of an investment by the Fund.

The Fund will invest in listed equities and derivatives, as well as cash. Harvest Lane may, in its discretion, invest in derivatives to gain an intended exposure or manage a particular risk.

The investment strategy, and the other limits set out in this PDS, should be viewed as objectives only and not absolute limits. Should they be exceeded for any reason, for example due to market movements or cash flows, Harvest Lane will endeavour to effect such adjustments as are necessary to meet the limits set out in this PDS.

If the investment program changes significantly, you will be given at least 30 days' notice where practicable.

ASIC has developed two benchmarks designed to help investors better understand, compare and assess funds like the Fund and understand whether such an investment is suitable for them. In the table below we set out each of the benchmarks together with a summary of how each benchmark is addressed.

BENCHMARK 1: Valuation of assets

This benchmark addresses whether valuations of the Fund’s non-exchange traded assets are provided by an independent administrator or an independent valuation service provider

The Fund does not meet this benchmark. Non-exchange traded assets (such as over the counter derivatives) are valued by the provider of the asset, who is unrelated to the Fund.

BENCHMARK 2: Periodic reporting

This benchmark addresses whether we provide periodic disclosure to our investors of certain key Fund information on an annual and monthly basis

The Fund meets this benchmark.

The following information will be provided to unit holders in the Fund on a monthly basis:

- any changes to key service providers including any change in related party status in respect of the Fund
- any material changes to the risk profile and strategy of the Fund and
- any material changes related to the primary investment personnel responsible for the Fund.

The following information will be made available to unit holders in the Fund on an annual basis:

- asset allocation to each asset type
- liquidity profile at the end of the relevant period
- maturity profile of liabilities at the end of the relevant period
- the gross exposure as a measure of the leverage ratio at the end of the relevant period
- details on derivative counterparties engaged;
- monthly returns and
- any changes to key service providers including any change in related party status.

These reports are available by contacting Fundhost, or at www.fundhost.com.au/investor/hlarf

What kind of fund is it and how is my money protected?

Who manages the Fund

Harvest Lane is a Sydney based investment manager whose sole focus is to generate superior risk adjusted returns for its investors on an absolute basis. Harvest Lane is wholly owned by its staff and is appointed as the investment manager of the Fund.

What the Fund invests in and how we manage your money

The Fund invests in situations whereby it perceives that the reward on offer is outsized relative to the risk involved.

Rather than employing a particular style (deep value, growth etc.) Harvest Lane employ a variety of styles to achieve the Fund's stated objective, namely to generate a positive return on capital employed regardless of underlying market or economic conditions.

The Fund does not track an index and nor is it required to be fully or partially invested in the event that Harvest Lane are unable to identify sufficiently attractive opportunities. Returns are not guaranteed.

The Fund has a particular focus on investments within the 'event' space (which includes merger arbitrage, corporate actions and select capital raisings). The average life of a trade is around 4 months which tends to be about the timeframe for an event to play out.

The Fund may trade CFDs, usually to establish a short position. More often than not this short position will act as a hedge against one or more corresponding long positions held within the portfolio. More information on CFDs can be obtained from ASIC's Money Smart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au).

Following is a chart showing the historical unit price (and therefore investment performance) of the Fund since inception. Note that the Fund has recently increased management fees and expenses. To offset this increase, Harvest Lane has slightly reduced its performance fee. Accordingly, the historical performance of the Fund (after fees) remains largely unchanged even after allowing for the change in fee structure.

Don't forget that any past returns are just that, just because they happened doesn't mean they will happen again. Returns are volatile and may go up and down significantly and sometimes quickly.

Is the Fund suitable for me?

Investment in the Fund is suited to persons who want exposure to an investment strategy whose returns will reflect the stock selection skills of the Manager, and will be largely uncorrelated with movements in the broader equity market.

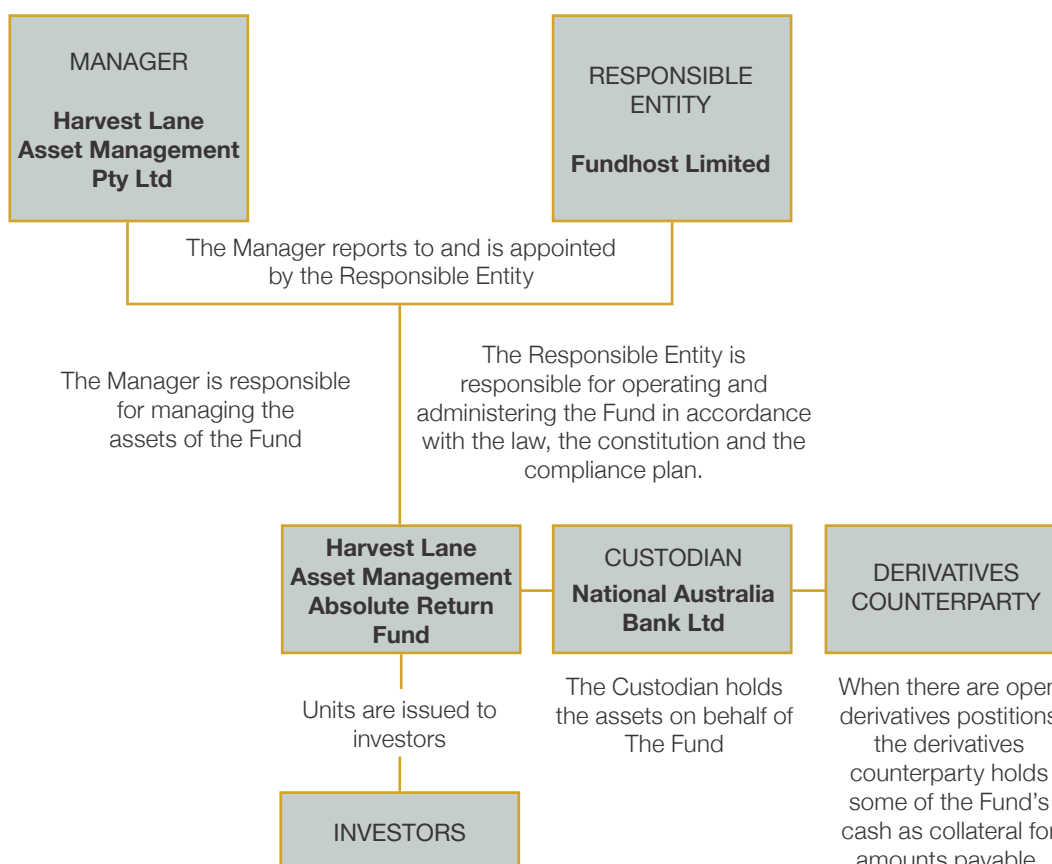

Although no one promises that you will make money – or that your original capital will be returned – the strategy employed by the Fund is intended to generate capital growth and income irrespective of market direction. An investment in the Fund is speculative and should only be made by investors who have a broader, diverse investment portfolio and who can bear the risk of loss of some or all of their investment. We recommend that you obtain professional advice before investing in the Fund (from an appropriately licensed financial adviser and/or tax adviser).

What corporate governance processes are in place to manage my investment?

Under the Australian Corporations Act and the Fund documents, investors are provided with several layers of independent oversight providing a robust and appropriate corporate governance structure. The structure provides additional investor safeguards through the separation of duties, specialisation of expertise, clear lines of responsibility and layered approval processes.

The Fund is operated and administered by a responsible entity that holds an appropriate Australian financial services licence. The responsible entity to the Fund is Fundhost. Fundhost has appointed Harvest Lane as Investment Manager of the Fund and NAB as custodian of the Fund.

The following diagram summarises the management and governance structure of the Fund.

Need help?

If you need advice about investing generally, then speak to a financial adviser. The ASIC can help you check if they're licensed. ASIC's website can be found at www.asic.gov.au.

What are the benefits of investing in the Fund?

Access to Harvest Lane's investment expertise

Managed funds pool investor money in one place, and the professionals who manage the Fund use their resources, experience and expertise to make the investment decisions. Harvest Lane is the investment manager of the Fund, and when you invest in the Fund you may benefit from its investing experience and expertise.

Long term horizon

Because returns may be volatile and some positions illiquid, the Fund wishes to attract investors with a long investment horizon (we recommend a minimum investment horizon of five years). If you are an investor with a long term horizon this approach may benefit you.

Recommended to be part of a diverse portfolio

The Fund may at times be invested in a small number of select opportunities. Returns could be volatile and we therefore recommend an investment in the Fund forms part of a wider diverse portfolio.

As part of a wider portfolio the Fund may offer diversification benefits through its exposure to short positions and specific trading opportunities.

Fee structure

Managed funds can often invest for less cost than ordinary investors. The Fund charges a management fee and ordinary recoverable expenses of up to 1.25% pa. Note that Harvest Lane does not receive any of this fee. A 25% performance fee is payable when performance is above the benchmark (being the RBA Cash Rate). Fees can have a significant impact on your investment returns over time, please see the section "Fees and other costs" for details.

Investing in the Fund may deliver additional benefits that cannot solely be captured by the increase in the Fund's unit price. In certain circumstances, the Fund may invest in situations whereby it is entitled to tax (or franking credits) that will ultimately be available for distribution to investors in the Fund. Subject to the individual circumstance of each investor, these franking credits may have the effect of boosting an investor's after tax returns (either by reducing tax payable or increasing the amount of any tax refund). Investors do not pay any additional fees in conjunction with the receipt of these credits.

Please note, returns are not guaranteed, but will reflect Harvest Lane's success in identifying and taking advantage of market opportunities.

What are the significant risks?

About risk and return

There are many risks associated with investing and some that are specific to the types of investments the Fund will make. It is important that you understand all the risks associated with investing.

All investments are subject to varying risks and the value of your investment can increase as well as decrease (i.e. you can experience investment losses or investment gains). Investment returns are affected by many factors including market volatility, interest rates and economic cycles. Changes in value can be significant and they can happen quickly. Different types of investments perform differently at different times and have different risk characteristics and volatility.

These are some of the reasons why you should consider investing in several different types of investments (often called diversification).

The significant risks associated with investing in the Fund are discussed below. We can't eliminate all risks and can't promise that the ways we manage them will always be successful.

Performance will be influenced by many factors, some of which are outside the control of Fundhost and Harvest Lane.

If these risks materialise, your distributions may be lower than expected or there may be none. The value of your investment could fall and you could lose money.

Concentration risk

The Fund will have holdings in ASX listed equities across a range of market sectors. The Fund may also invest in international equities. However, the Fund intends to typically hold 12 to 15 long positions and offset these with 5 to 10 short positions. The Fund's portfolio therefore will be more concentrated in its holdings than other managed funds. This may cause the value of the investments to be more affected by any single adverse economic, political or regulatory event or the outcome of any particular situation or transaction affecting the company, such as a takeover than the investments of a more diversified investment portfolio.

Individual investment risk

Investments made by the Fund, like shares on the ASX and derivatives positions can (and do) rise and fall in value for many reasons; such as changes in a company's internal operations or management, or in its business environment. Harvest Lane manages the Fund in order to profit from particular circumstances such as a takeover offer and as noted above, the portfolio is relatively concentrated. The Fund can borrow and use derivatives. All these factors can increase individual investment risk for a period of time.

Market risk

Economic, technological, political or legal conditions, interest rates and even market sentiment, can (and do) change, and changes in the value of investment markets can affect the value of the investments in unpredictable ways.

Investment manager risk

Investment managers can be wound up or liquidated, they can cease to manage the relevant fund and be replaced, their investment methodology can change, they can poorly manage operational risks and their funds can perform poorly.

Further, only a small number of investment professionals are responsible for managing the Fund and their personal circumstances can change.

If any of these events occurred in respect of Harvest Lane, Fundhost would do all things reasonably practicable to recover the value of the investments and seek a new investment manager or program, with a similar investment profile if thought appropriate. If the investment program changed significantly, you would be given at least 30 days' notice where practicable.

Fundhost aims to reduce risk in relation to the Manager by having additional investment resources available through Fundhost.

Fund risk

Risks particular to the Fund include that it could terminate (for example, at a date we decide), the fees and expenses could change (although we would always give you at least 30 days' notice if fees were to increase), we could be replaced as responsible entity of the Fund and our management and staff could change.

There is also a risk that investing in the Fund may give different results than investing individually because of income or capital gains accrued in the Fund and the consequences of investment and withdrawal by other investors.

Liquidity risk

There are circumstances under which access to your money may be delayed – these are discussed under the heading “Payments can be delayed”. Further, the level of overall market liquidity is an important factor that may contribute to the profitability of the Fund and access to your money. Illiquid markets can make it difficult to trade profitably and to realise assets in a timely fashion to meet withdrawal requests.

Also note that units in the Fund are not quoted on any stock exchange so you cannot sell them through a stockbroker.

Interest rate risk

This is the risk that capital value or income of a security may be adversely affected when interest rates rise or fall.

Currency risk

This is the risk that investments can fall in value due to adverse currency movements. The Fund will have some exposure to currency risk when it holds international investments and domestic investments that are impacted by currency movements.

Counterparty risk

The Fund is subject to the risk that the counterparty to a transaction or contract (such as the issuer of CFDs) may default on their obligations and as a result, experience an adverse investment outcome or liability.

The Fund will trade CFDs with various counterparties and will deposit cash from the Fund with them to fund margin calls. Therefore, there is a risk that if a CFD counterparty becomes insolvent whilst the Fund remains indebted to it, the assets of the Fund may not be returned in full. We manage this risk by limiting the amount of the Fund's assets that can be deposited as margin and having limits on gross and net exposure and leverage within the Fund as well as on individual position size limits.

Regulatory risk

Changes in applicable laws and policies (including taxation policies, regulations and laws affecting managed investment schemes or changes in generally accepted accounting policies or valuation methods) in Australia or in any jurisdiction in which the Fund invests may adversely affect the Fund. Changes in political situations and changes to foreign and domestic tax positions can also impact on the Fund.

The Australian taxation consequences of an investment in the Fund, detailed in the “What about tax?” section, have been based on taxation legislation as at the date of this PDS.

Future changes in Australian tax legislation or in the interpretation of that legislation may adversely affect the tax treatment of the Fund, or of the investors or the tax treatment of a specific investment of the Fund. To the extent the Fund invests in international equities, then future changes in non-Australian tax legislation may affect the tax treatment of the Fund, its investments and the distributions of profits. Such changes may have an impact on the value of your investment in the Fund.

Distribution risk

The Fund will distribute available income annually (as at 30 June). However, the amount of any distribution may vary significantly from year to year, and no distribution may be paid in years when the Fund does not have available income. An investment in the Fund may therefore not be suitable for investors seeking a regular income stream for financial or tax planning purposes. Further information regarding taxation matters can be found in the “What about tax?” section of this PDS.

CFD risk

The Fund will often use CFDs in lieu of short-selling. A short CFD position allows the investor to profit from declines in market prices to the extent such declines exceed the transaction costs. A short CFD creates the risk of an unlimited loss, as the price of the underlying security could theoretically increase without limit, thus increasing the cost of buying those securities to cover the short position. Closing out CFDs depends on the counterparty agreeing to enter into an offsetting transaction. Although to date counterparties generally agree to do so, there is a possibility that in a very volatile market they may not. The Manager can reduce or eliminate this risk by purchasing shares (in the case of shorts) or entering into an offsetting transaction with another provider in the case of other types of CFDs.

Derivatives risk

The Fund will from time to time use other derivative instruments in addition to CFDs (see above). The use of derivative instruments involves a variety of material risks including the high degree of leverage often embedded in such instruments. Other risks include the possibility that a derivative position is difficult or costly to close out, there is an adverse movement in the asset or the index underlying a derivative, and the risk that the counterparty to a derivative contract fails to perform its obligations under the contract.

Derivative risks include:

- derivative valuations may not move in line with the underlying asset
- potential illiquidity of the derivative
- lack of capacity of the Fund to meet payment obligations as they arise and
- counterparties not meeting their obligations.

Although not all of these risks can be eliminated, Harvest Lane manages these risks as far as practicable by:

- monitoring the Fund's derivative exposures
- ensuring the Fund can meet all of its derivative obligations
- using reputable counterparties and
- limiting the Fund's gross and net exposure, as well as its leverage and having individual position limits.

Leverage risk

Harvest Lane will use leverage with derivatives which will enable it to make investments with a face value in excess of its equity. It will also borrow money and gear the Fund in order to purchase shares when a market opportunity arises. The use of leverage increases both investment opportunity and investment risk. For example, as a result of using leverage, the net asset value of the Fund will increase more when the Fund's assets increase in value, and decrease more when the Fund's assets decrease in value, than would otherwise be the case if leverage was not used.

The use of leverage levels is strictly controlled by limiting the Fund's gross and net exposure, as well as its leverage in absolute terms and by having individual position limits.

Fundhost performs regular analysis of the Fund's positions to ensure that they are operating within their prescribed limits at all times.

When CFDs and other derivatives are traded, they may be entered into by depositing only a percentage of the CFD or derivative's face value and borrowing the remainder (margin). As a result, a relatively small adverse price movement in a CFD or a derivative's value may result in immediate and substantial losses to the investor. Like other leveraged investments, any purchase or sale of a CFD or other derivative on margin may result in losses in excess of the amount invested.

The interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with any borrowing may not be recovered by appreciation in the investments purchased. The Fund may be subject to additional risks, including the possibility of a "margin call", pursuant to which the Fund must either deposit additional funds with the counterparty or lender or suffer mandatory liquidation of the position to compensate for the decline in value. In the event of a sudden, precipitous drop in the value of the Fund's assets, the Fund might not be able to liquidate assets quickly enough to pay off its margin debt. Such an event would adversely affect the Fund's investments.

Fees and other costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your fund balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You may be able to negotiate to pay lower contribution fees and management costs where applicable. Ask the Fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a managed investment fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This document shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the Fund's assets as a whole.

Taxes are set out in another part of this document.

You should read all the information about fees and costs, because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Example of annual fees and costs

This table gives an example of how the fees and costs for the Fund can affect your investment over a one year period. You should use this table to compare this product with other managed investment products.

EXAMPLE - WHERE PERFORMANCE FEE IS PAYABLE		BALANCE OF $50,000 WITH A CONTRIBUTION OF $5,000 DURING THE YEAR
Contribution Fees	Nil	For every additional $5,000 you put in, you will be charged $0.
PLUS Management Costs	Up to 1.25% per annum and an estimated performance fee of 25% of outperformance.	And , for every $50,000 you have in the Fund, you will be charged up to $1,875 each year. (This amount comprises the management fees and expenses of $625 and estimated performance fee of $1,250).
EQUALS Cost of Fund	Nil	If you had an investment of $50,000 at the beginning of the year and you put in an additional $5,000 during that year, you would be charged fees of: up to $1,875*. What it costs you will depend on the fees you negotiate.

*The Corporations Act requires that when calculating management costs in this table, we must not include contributions made during the year or allow for any positive performance that may occur (e.g. we must assume that the value of your investment remains at $50,000 and the Fund's unit price does not fluctuate). Please be aware that management costs actually incurred will depend on the market value of your investment and the timing of your contributions (including any reinvestment of distributions) during any 12-month period. The example assumes no abnormal expenses are incurred and no additional service fees are incurred by you. We have based the performance fee calculation on an estimated 12% return, with the RBA Cash Rate at 2%, and outperformance of 10% and assumed that it is paid annually. The actual performance fee and therefore the total management costs will depend on the performance of the Fund and the level of the RBA Cash Rate and will be paid semi-annually and may vary from the example above.

Additional explanation of fees and costs

Contribution fees

No contribution fee is charged when you make an initial investment or additional investments into the Fund.

Additional service fees

If you ask us to do something special for you, Fundhost may charge you a fee. These special fees vary depending on what you ask us to do. Currently, our fee to transmit funds via a telegraphic transfer is $50.

Management costs (other than performance fees)

Up to 1.25% per annum in management fees and ordinary recoverable expenses are payable in relation to your investment in the Fund. This includes all fees and costs (apart from performance fees and any abnormal expenses – discussed below) associated with an investment in the Fund. Fees are based on the value of the net assets of the Fund, are deducted monthly in arrears from the Fund and are reflected in your overall returns.

Recoverable expenses

All ordinary expenses for the Fund are included in the maximum 1.25% per annum management costs quoted above. These are the ordinary and every day expenses incurred in registering and operating the Fund. The constitution for the Fund provides that expenses incurred by us in relation to the proper performance of our duties in respect of the Fund are payable or reimbursable out of the assets of the Fund and are unlimited. While ordinary and every day expenses are included in the maximum 1.25% per annum management costs quoted above, we reserve the right to recover abnormal expenses. Abnormal expenses are expected to occur infrequently and may include (without limitation) costs of litigation to protect investors' rights, costs to defend claims in relation to the Fund and termination and wind up costs. If abnormal expenses are incurred, they will be deducted from the assets of the Fund as and when they are incurred.

Performance fee charged by the Fund

A performance fee of 25% of the total return of the Fund, after management fees and expenses have been deducted, that is in excess of the benchmark (being the RBA Cash Rate), applies. The performance fee is accrued daily and is payable to Harvest Lane in respect of each 6 monthly period (the 6 months to 30 June and 31 December each year) in arrears, when the investment performance of the Fund exceeds the benchmark.

When the total return of the Fund is less than the corresponding return of the benchmark, no performance fee is payable. No performance fee is payable until any previous period(s) of underperformance have been made up. Every 3 years any underperformance may be reset to 0.

Can the fees change?

Yes, all fees can change. Reasons might include changing economic conditions and changes in regulation. The constitution for the Fund sets the maximum amount we can charge for all fees. If we wished to raise fees above the amounts allowed for in the Fund's constitution, we would need the approval of investors.

We will give you 30 days' written notice of any proposed change to these fees. We also provide you with notice of any proposed changes to fees in the Fund more generally.

It is worth noting that it is very much the intention of the Manager that management costs as a percentage of Fund assets will decrease through time as the value of Fund assets increases. This is because Harvest Lane intends to continue to be compensated solely by its performance fees. To this end, management costs will be used to pay Fundhost's fees and externally incurred expenses (such as legal and other costs of registering the Fund, custody, and audit fees). Harvest Lane will not use Fund assets to pay for expenses such as rent, salaries, phone and internet and so on. Harvest Lane does this to ensure that it is remunerated only in line with performance and not simply for accumulating assets.

What about the costs of investing and withdrawing from the Fund?

When you invest in the Fund, Harvest Lane will buy (and sell) investments, and this costs money (for example brokerage and custody costs are incurred).

When you withdraw, Harvest Lane will sell investments so we can pay your cash to you, and this costs money too. We call this the buy-sell spread.

A buy-sell spread is an adjustment to the unit price reflecting our estimate of the transaction costs that may be incurred as a result of the purchase/sale of assets arising from the issue/withdrawal of units. This adjustment ensures that existing investors do not pay costs associated with other investors acquiring/withdrawing units from the Fund. The buy-sell spread is reflected in the issue/withdrawal price.

Currently, our buy-sell spread is estimated to be 0.50% of the unit price (that is +0.25% on the entry price and -0.25% on the exit price). So if the net asset value of each unit is $1.00, on entry we adjust the unit price up approximately 0.25% (up 0.25 cents) and on exit we adjust the unit price down approximately 0.25% (down 0.25 cents). We are not paid any of this money.

Because the spread is reflected in the issue/withdrawal price, you won't see transaction costs such as the buy-sell spread on any account statement we send you.

Can fees be different for different investors?

The law allows us to negotiate fees with "wholesale" investors or otherwise in accordance with ASIC requirements. The size of the investment and other relevant factors may be taken into account. We generally don't negotiate fees. However, we may negotiate management fees with very large wholesale clients only. The terms of these arrangements are at our discretion.

Adviser remuneration

No commissions will be paid by us to financial advisers.

You may incur a fee for the advice provided to you by your adviser, but this does not represent a fee that we have charged you for investing in the Fund and is not an amount paid out of the assets of the Fund. The amount of fees you will pay (if any) to your adviser should be set out in a Statement of Advice given to you by your financial adviser. You will be responsible for the payment of these fees and they will not be paid by us. We recommend that you check with your adviser if you will be charged a fee for the provision of their advice.

We maintain an Alternate Forms of Remuneration Register. The register, which you can review by contacting us, outlines some alternative forms of remuneration that we may, subject to law, pay to or receive from licensees, fund managers or representatives (if any is paid or received at all in relation to the Fund).

Government charges and taxation

Government taxes such as GST are applied to your account as appropriate. In addition to the fees and costs described in this section, standard government fees, duties and bank charges may also apply such as stamp duties. Some of these charges may include additional GST and will apply to your investments and withdrawals as appropriate.

The fees outlined in the tables above take into account any GST and reduced input tax credits which may be available. Further information regarding taxation matters can be found in the "What about tax?" section of this PDS.

What about Fund performance?

Refer to the chart in the “What kind of fund is it and how is my money protected?” section for details of historical unit prices (and therefore investment performance) since the Fund’s inception.

If you are interested in:

- up to date Fund performance or
- current unit prices

then ask your financial adviser, call Fundhost on +61 (0)2 8223 5400, or go to www.fundhost.com.au/investor/hlarf.

Up to date information is always free of charge. Don’t forget that any past returns are just that, just because they happened doesn’t mean they will happen again. Returns are volatile and may go up and down significantly and sometimes quickly.

How the Fund works

When you invest in the Fund your money (together with all other investors’ monies) is gathered in one place and invested in assets. We have appointed Harvest Lane to manage the Fund. Harvest Lane uses its resources, experience and expertise to make the investment decisions.

We have appointed NAB as the independent custodian to hold the assets of the Fund.

Units

The Fund is a unit trust. This means your interests in the Fund are represented by units. Certain rights (such as the right to any income and a right to vote) attach to your units. You may also have obligations in respect of your units.

Each unit has a value which we calculate. When you invest, we issue you a number of units depending on the amount you invest. Similarly, when you withdraw from the Fund, we calculate your withdrawal proceeds by reference to the number and value of units you hold at the time of withdrawal. Generally, the price of units will vary as the market value of assets in the Fund rises or falls.

How to invest

Investing and withdrawing

To invest in the Fund, use the application form accompanying this PDS. The following minimum transactions, balance requirements and processing rules generally apply (although we may vary them at our discretion and without notice):

TRANSACTION	DETAILS
Minimum initial investment	$5,000
Minimum additional investment	$1,000 or $100 ongoing for monthly direct debit
Minimum withdrawal	$1,000 or remaining balance
Minimum balance	$1,000
Unit pricing frequency	Daily

Applications and withdrawals processing

Application requests will be processed daily. If your application request and investment is received before 4pm Sydney time, it will be processed using the unit price effective for that day. If it is received after 4pm, it will be processed effective for the following day. If you are making monthly direct debit contributions, refer below for more information on debit and cut off times.

We generally process redemption requests daily. If your redemption request is received before 4pm Sydney time, it will be processed using the unit price effective for that day. If it is received after 4pm, it will be processed effective for the following day.

Please note that both application and redemption prices effective on a particular day are calculated on the following day and are not the same as the current prices shown on our website.

Additional investments can be made at any time in writing using the additional investment form.

See the section "Investing through a master trust or wrap account" for more information and for arrangements that apply to investors using a master trust or wrap account service to invest.

You have options for investing. You may make direct investments into the Fund with an initial amount of at least $5,000. We also offer a monthly savings plan via direct debit with a minimum amount of $100 per month. Investors who sign up for the direct debit monthly savings plan are required to make the initial investment amount of $5,000. Investors may invest using a combination of both direct investments and the monthly savings plan.

To apply as a direct investor, use the application form accompanying this PDS.

To apply as a monthly savings plan investor, complete the application form and Direct Debit Savings Plan Form accompanying this PDS and submit both forms. Direct debits occur on the 25th of each month, or the next business day. All new savings plan applications received prior to the 25th of the month will be processed on the 25th of that month, or the next business day. All savings plan applications received between the 25th and end of the month will be processed on the 25th of the subsequent month, or the next business day.

The application form contains detailed instructions and will ask you to provide the identification documents required under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML CTF Act).

We do not earn interest, nor do we pay you interest, on application monies held prior to the time we issue units to you.

We accept signed application forms and certified copies of documents required to identify applicants (Application Documents) by email or fax as well as paper. Provided we receive clear and legible copies of your Application Documents by the cut off time, together with your application monies, we will process your application using the unit price effective for the day we receive your application monies and Application Documents. Applications via email need to be sent to admin@fundhost.com.au or by fax to (02) 9232 8600.

To apply for units in the Fund using electronic means, you must accept full responsibility (to the extent permitted by law) for any loss arising from us acting upon Application Documents received by email or fax. You agree to release and indemnify Fundhost in respect of any liabilities arising from us acting on Application Documents received by email or fax, even if those documents are ultimately found to not be genuine. You also agree that neither you nor any other person has any claim against Fundhost in relation to a payment processed, units issued or other action taken by us if we rely on Application Documents received by email or fax.

Investing through a master trust or wrap account

If this is you, then remember that it is generally the operator of that service which becomes the investor in the Fund (not you). It follows that they have the rights of an investor and can exercise them (or not) in accordance with their agreements with you. This means, for example, that you generally cannot vote on units held in the Fund and you do not have cooling off rights in respect of any units held in the Fund. Speak with your wrap account or master trust operator to determine whether any cooling off rights are available to you through the service. We are not responsible for the operation of any master trust or wrap account through which you invest. Indirect investors complete the application forms for the master trust or wrap account and receive reports from that operator, not from us. The minimum investment, balance and withdrawal amounts may be different. You should also take into account the fees and charges of the master trust or wrap account operator as these will be in addition to the fees paid in connection with an investment in the Fund. Enquiries and complaints should be directed to the operator of the master trust or wrap account. You can however still rely on the information in this PDS. In addition to reading this PDS, you should read the document that explains the master trust or wrap account (called a “guide”).

Cooling off

If you decide that you don't want the units we have issued you in the Fund, we must repay your money to you.

We are allowed to (and generally do) make adjustments for market movements up or down, as well as any tax and reasonable transaction and administration costs. For example, if you invest $5,000 and the value of the units falls by 1% between the time you invest and the time we receive notification that you wish to withdraw your investment, you would receive the reduced unit value. This means that $4,925.28 would be transferred from the Fund back to you.

If you change your mind, you have 14 days to tell us, starting on the earlier of:

- when we send you confirmation that you are invested or
- the end of the 5th day after the day on which we issue the units to you.

This right terminates immediately if you exercise a right or power under the terms of the product, such as transferring your units or voting on any units held by you. For any subsequent investments made under a savings or distribution reinvestment plan, cooling off rights do not apply. (Payments can be delayed if the Fund is illiquid. See 'Payments can be delayed' in the 'Withdrawing your investment' section).

Investors investing in the Fund via a master trust and wrap account should speak to the operator of that service to determine whether cooling off rights are available to them for that service.

Withdrawing your investment

Units in the Fund are not listed on any stock exchange like the ASX, so you cannot sell your units through a stockbroker.

If you want to withdraw your money, simply contact us in writing and tell us how much you need to withdraw. This is called a redemption request.

We accept scanned or faxed redemption requests on the following conditions:

- all instructions must be legible
- instructions must bear your investor number and signature and
- redemption proceeds will only be transferred to the financial institution account previously nominated on the application form or otherwise notified to us in writing (we need an original signed by the account signatories to effect such a change).

To use this service, you will need to accept full responsibility (to the extent permitted by law) for loss arising from us acting upon faxed or scanned instructions which comply with these security processes and you also agree to release and indemnify us in respect of any liabilities arising from us acting on faxed or scanned instructions (including future instructions), even if those instructions are not genuine. Also you agree that neither you nor any other person has any claim against us in relation to a payment made or action taken under the facsimile or scanned instruction service if the payment is made in accordance with these conditions. These terms and conditions are additional to any other requirements for giving redemption instructions.

The amount of money you receive is determined by the unit price applicable to your redemption request. We can withhold from amounts we pay you any amount you owe us or we owe someone else relating to you (for example, the tax office).

We generally pay all redemption proceeds in cash, but we are permitted under the constitution for the Fund to pay proceeds in kind (i.e. in specie share transfer).

Payments can be delayed

In certain circumstances we may need to delay withdrawal of your money. We can delay withdrawal of your money for 21 days or such period as considered appropriate in our view in all the circumstances if:

- there are not enough investments which we can easily turn into cash (the law dictates this). We don't anticipate the Fund would ever become illiquid but if it did, the law says we can (if we wish) make some money available, and requires us to allocate it on a pro rata basis amongst those wanting to exit or
- we receive a quantity of withdrawal requests representing more than 20% of the value of the investments of the Fund. In this case we can stagger withdrawal payments.

In certain circumstances we can also delay withdrawal of your money for so long as the relevant event continues. The constitution sets out the full range of circumstances in which we can delay withdrawal of your money and these include (among others) if:

- something outside our control affects our ability to properly or fairly calculate the unit price (for example, if the investments are subject to restrictions or if there is material market uncertainty like a stock market crash)
- a portion of the Fund's assets comprise illiquid assets (that is, assets not readily converted to cash). In this case Fundhost can redeem such number of units that correspond to the portion of the Fund's liquid assets (that is, assets readily converted to cash). For example, if an investor requests redemption of all of their units and the Fund's assets comprise 10% of illiquid assets, Fundhost may determine to redeem only 90% of the investor's units. Fundhost may redeem the remaining units at such future time, or at times over such period, as it determines
- an emergency or similar state of affairs occurs which, in our reasonable opinion, makes it impractical to redeem units or which might be prejudicial to the remaining investors
- there is a closure or material restriction on trading on the major global stock exchanges or realisation of the assets cannot be effected at prices which would be obtained if assets were realised in an orderly fashion over a reasonable period in a stable market or
- we otherwise consider it is in the best interests of the investors to delay withdrawal of units.

We can give you back your invested money without you asking

In certain circumstances we can, or may be required to, also redeem some or all of your units without you asking. These circumstances include:

- if you breach your obligations to us (for example, you provide misleading information in your unit application form)
- to satisfy any amount of money due to us (as responsible entity or in any other capacity relevant to the Fund) by you
- to satisfy any amount of money we (as responsible entity or in any other capacity relevant to the Fund) owe someone else relating to you (for example, to the tax office)
- where we suspect that law prohibits you from legally being an investor or
- such other circumstance as we determine in our absolute discretion (but we must always act in the best interests of investors as a whole when deciding to do this).

How we calculate unit prices

We calculate unit prices in three steps:

- we calculate the value of the investments of the Fund and take away the value of the liabilities as defined in the Fund's constitution
- we divide this result by the number of units we have on issue to obtain the unit mid-price
- we then make an adjustment (up for the entry price, to take account of the costs of buying investments or down for the exit price to take account of the costs of realising investments) called a buy-sell spread. The buy-sell spread does not represent a fee to Fundhost or Harvest Lane and is discussed in more detail in the section "Additional explanation of fees and costs".
- These steps give us a price per unit.

Distributions

The Fund will distribute its available income annually (as at 30 June). However, distributions can vary and may be zero in some years. An investment in the Fund may therefore not be suitable for investors seeking a regular income stream for financial or tax planning purposes.

Investors can elect to receive distributions as cash, or to reinvest distributions back into The Fund at the relevant unit price at that time. Distributions will generally be paid within 65 days of the distribution date. Further information regarding taxation matters can be found in the "What about tax?" section of this PDS.

Keeping you informed

We will:

- confirm every transaction you make
- soon after June each year send you a report to help you with your tax return
- each year (around September) make the accounts of the Fund available to you on our website
- send you your annual statement
- notify you of any material changes to this PDS and any other significant event as required by law and
- provide you with the monthly and annual reports referred to in Disclosure Benchmark 2 in the “Disclosure Benchmarks” section of this PDS. These reports are available by contacting Fundhost, or at www.fundhost.com.au/investor/hlarf.

The Fund has less than 100 investors. When the Fund has 100 investors or more, the Fund will be considered a “disclosing entity” for the purposes of the Corporations Act. This means the Fund will become subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations. Copies of any documents lodged with ASIC in relation to the Fund may be obtained from, or can be inspected at, an ASIC office. Investors will have a right to obtain a copy, free of charge, in respect of the Fund, of:

- the most recent annual financial report and
- any half yearly financial report lodged with ASIC after that most recent annual financial report but before the date of this PDS.

Any continuous disclosure obligations we may have will be met by following ASIC’s good practice guidance via website notices rather than lodging copies of these notices with ASIC. Accordingly should Fundhost, as responsible entity of the Fund, become aware of material information that would otherwise be required to be lodged with ASIC as part of any continuous disclosure obligations, we will ensure that such material information will be made available as soon as practicable on our website at www.fundhost.com.au/investor/hlarf. If you would like hard copies of this information, call Fundhost on + 61 (0)2 8223 5400 and we will send it to you free of charge.

What about tax?

Your tax liability ultimately depends on your circumstances, for example, whether you are an Australian resident. So it's important that you seek professional advice before you invest or deal with your investment.

In all likelihood you will need to pay tax in relation to your investment in this Fund. Generally you will pay income or capital gains tax, but you might be able to claim some tax credits or have the benefit of some concessions.

We will send you the information you need each year to help you to complete your tax return.

We will generally distribute any income and realised gains, if any, shortly after 30 June each year.

Distributions could comprise:

- income (like dividends and interest) and
- net taxable capital gains (from the sale of the Fund's investments).

Additionally, Australian residents are generally subject to capital gains tax on gains when they withdraw any money or transfer units.

Depending on the kind of taxpayer you are, and how long you have held your units, you may be entitled to a capital gains concession which can reduce the liability by up to one half.

If you choose not to provide us with your tax file number (TFN) or Australian business number (ABN) and don't have an exemption, we must deduct tax at the highest personal rate, plus the Medicare levy, before passing on any distribution to you. The law is very strict on how we can use these details.

You should seek your own tax advice to ensure the Fund is appropriate for you. Neither Fundhost nor Harvest Lane provide any tax advice.

Fundhost's responsibilities to you

The constitution establishes the Fund and sets out the rules. Together with this PDS and the law from time to time, it governs your relationship with Fundhost. It gives Fundhost rights to be paid fees and expenses and be indemnified from the Fund. It governs (amongst other things) Fundhost's powers (which are very broad), investor meetings and unit issue, pricing and withdrawal, as well as what happens if the Fund terminates.

The constitution limits Fundhost's need to compensate you if things go wrong. Generally, Fundhost is not liable in equity, contract, tort or otherwise to investors for any loss suffered in any way relating to the Fund.

The constitution also contains a provision that it alone is the source of the relationship between you and Fundhost and not any other laws (except, of course, those laws that can't be excluded).

Fundhost must have investor approval to make changes to the constitution which are adverse to the rights of investors.

You can obtain a free copy of the Fund's constitution by calling Fundhost on + 61 (0)2 8223 5400.

In order to meet our obligations under anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing legislation (AML CTF Act), taxation legislation (including the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act) or other legislation, we may require further information from you as to identity, the source of your funds and similar matters. Fundhost may be required to verify that information by sighting appropriate documentation. Records of the information obtained will be kept and may be required by law to be disclosed. Otherwise the information will be kept confidential.

By applying for units in the Fund, you also agree that Fundhost may in its absolute discretion determine not to issue units to you, may cancel units which have been issued to you or may redeem any units issued to you if Fundhost believe such action to be necessary or desirable in light of its obligations under the AML CTF Act or related legislation and Fundhost will not be liable to you for any resulting loss.

Custodian

Fundhost has appointed NAB as custodian of this fund. NAB's role as custodian is limited to holding the assets of the Fund as Fundhost's agent. NAB has no supervisory role in relation to the operation of the Fund and is not responsible for protecting your interests. NAB has no liability or responsibility to you for any act done or omission made in accordance with the terms of the Custody Agreement. NAB makes no statement in the PDS and has not authorised or caused the issue of it. Investments of the Fund do not represent investments in, deposits with, or other liabilities of, NAB or any other member of the NAB group of companies (NAB Group). Neither NAB, nor any other member of NAB Group, in any way stands behind the capital value, nor do they guarantee the performance of the investment or the underlying assets of the Fund, or provide a guarantee or assurance in respect of the obligations of Fundhost or its related entities.

Consents

Harvest Lane and NAB each consent and, as at the date of this PDS, have not withdrawn their respective consent to the statements (in the form and context in which they are included) about them. Harvest Lane and NAB, have not otherwise issued or caused the issue of this PDS.

Related party transactions and conflicts of interest

Fundhost does not engage in any related party transactions with any person. All dealings with other parties are at commercial, arms' length terms.

Fundhost has a conflicts of interest policy and register which it maintains in accordance with the law. It seeks to address any conflicts that may arise as part of Fundhost's business and that relate to the Fund and the Fund specifically.
